

FOUND ROLL ON DELANEY.

Brooklyn Sporting Man Had Nearly $1,000 When Assaulted.

THINK A NEGRO DID IT.

He Has Regained Consciousness But Has Not Yet Explained His Injuries.

Mystery still surrounds the assault on John F. Delaney, the well-known sporting man, who was found unconscious at Broadway and Covert street, Brooklyn, early yesterday morning. He is still in St. Mary's Hospital, suffering from concussion of the brain and many bruises. He has recovered consciousness and the surgeons may permit him to try to explain his injuries to-day, if he can. So far, he has not been allowed to talk.

The Brooklyn police are searching for a negro, supposed to be a discharged employee of Delaney's, who was looking for him Tuesday.

At Delaney's home it was said he left the house about 1 o'clock Wednesday morning to get lunch, as was his custom. He intended returning soon. He had between $500 and $1,000 in bills and a $300 watch. He was found two hours later with money and watch gone.

HOPE BOOTH ASKS FOR BIG ALIMONY.

Actress in Suit for Divorce Says Husband Has Large Income, While She Is Needy.

Maurice Meyer applied to Justice O'Grady in the Supreme Court today for $150 a month alimony and $750 counsel fees in behalf of Hope Booth, the actress, who is suing her husband, James A. B. Earl, for an absolute divorce.

The actress, whose graceful curves formed the theme of public discussion during the "living picture" fad, says in her complaint that she was married to Earl at Paterson, N. J., Dec. 19, 1896. Earl comes of a fine old Irish-American family of Revolutionary fame, and his mother is alleged to be worth $200,000. She gave a $50,000 drinking fountain for horses to the village of Kinderhook, where she lives, and it is the most conspicuous thing in the public square. The actress says in her complaint that she lived happily with her husband down to last January, when, on Jan. 15, he took a woman named Cora Wilson and her child to the Hotel Bartholdi, where he engaged a room and was there with the woman and child several hours. The next morning the woman complained that she had been robbed of $3,700 worth of jewelry, and on Jan. 22 Earl was arrested. The Wilson woman failed to appear against him and he was

PEW FOR MRS. ROOSEVELT.

President's Wife Will Attend St. John's Episcopal Church.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—It was stated at the White House to-day that after Mrs. Roosevelt will occupy "The President's Pew" at St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, at the corner of Sixteenth and H streets. This is one of the oldest and smallest Episcopal churches in Washington, and for many years one of the most desirable pews in it has been reserved for the use of the family of the President of the United States whenever he should worship there.

During the present administration it has been occupied by Secretary Hitchcock and family, but on Mrs. Roosevelt's expressing a desire to attend that church it was at once turned over to her.

The President will continue to attend the Grace Reformed Church.
